COMMUNIQUÉ N°4

APPEAL IN COURT OF CASSATION AND OTHER CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

“JUSTICE WILL WIN”

“Appeal in cassation against a serious and prejudicial judgment that has no place in a state governed by the rule of law.”

The Belgian parties have appealed to the Court of Cassation against the judgment handed down on January 20, 2025 in Liège. It would appear that the member states may follow suit. The press must now turn to the other parties to ascertain their intentions.

“Violating fundamental rights gives rise to a presumption of automatic damage according to the ECHR”

We cannot accept giving up in the face of a decision that seriously undermines the ECHR's jurisprudence. Allowing the January 20 decision to become final would destroy the effectiveness of human rights.

“It is unacceptable that the justice system should deliberately allow Ursula von der Leyen to go unpunished.”

By its decision and with the help of EPPO, the Liège Chamber of Indictment has deprived us of our rights, in particular the right to an effective remedy and access to an independent and impartial court. Although offences have been committed, the judiciary does not intend to let citizens complain about them, while refusing to prosecute them itself. It's a de facto push-to-crime logic and a tacit legitimization of white-collar crime.

“Our victory is that of having restored transparency by breaking Pfizer's secrecy.”

We have put an end to the illegal withholding of contracts organized by the von der Leyen Commission and Pfizer. Members of the European Parliament, victims of side effects, parents who have lost a child or loved one, airline pilots who have been hindered in implementing passenger safety ... All can finally find out what has been hidden from them for years.

“From transparency to the punishment of those responsible and societal change.”

Now that transparency has been achieved, we need to hold decision-makers accountable for their crimes and misdemeanors, and help bring about the societal changes that will enable democracy to return to Europe. Everyone will follow the voice that suits them best.

“Other criminal proceedings are underway or planned against Ursula von der Leyen and her accomplices.”

Given that offences have indeed been committed, other legal actions will follow or are already underway. We will not let any judge or prosecutor organize impunity. Corruption is a crime whose perpetrators must be prosecuted rather than protected.
